HONOLULU, H. T., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1900

PRICE FIVE CENTS

HAWAII TO THE FORE AT UTAH CELEBRATION.

Fifth Annual Reunion of Pacific Island Missionaries.

HAWAIIAN SONGS WERE RENDERED AND ANECDOTES RECOUNTED OF THE PIONEER WORK OF MORMONS HERE.

Tableau Included Children in Native Costume of Hawaiians—President Cannon's Experience in Hawaii.

Hawaii was to the fore at Salt Lake, Utah, on August 11. On that day the fifth annual reunion of the Pacific island missionaries was held at Salt Lake, on the shores of Salt Lake. It proved the most notable ever held and was largely attended, says the Salt Lake Tribune in describing the event, fully 4,000 persons being present. The program was an extremely interesting one. First came the singing of "America" by the entire assembly, and it was estimated that at least three thousand voices were raised in the grand old anthem.

B. F. Johnson offered the opening prayer, after which the Beezley brothers, Matthew Noali and Elihu Barrell rendered the "Missionary's Farewell." All of these have at one time or another served as missionaries in the Pacific Isles.

The appearance of President George Q. Cannon on the platform was the signal for a burst of applause. His subject was the "Introduction of the Gospel to the Pacific Islanders." He gave a brief but at times a very interesting talk on the introduction of Mormonism into the isles of the Pacific and said that he was proud that he had been one of the pioneers in the work, which really had but just commenced. He had spent four years of his life on the Hawaiian Islands, going there in December, 1850, in company with Hiram Clark, Thomas Whitte, Henry W. Bigler, Thomas Morris, John Dixon, William Farrer, James Hawkins, Hiram H. Blackwell and James Keeler. These were the first missionaries to the Hawaiian Islands. President Cannon also translated the book of Mormon into the Hawaiian language, one of the early struggles of the natives and gave a meed of praise to the brethren who had since followed the way blazed by these first missionaries.

The Hawaiian glee by the native Hawaiians, Na'ihue, Kolo'ihue, Pihani, Henele and Davika, was one of the features of the afternoon services and though the music sounded somewhat crude to ears unaccustomed to the language, it was thoroughly enjoyed by all the missionaries present, and especially by such as had not heard Hawaiians sing for many years.

Miss Emma Percell also sang very sweetly and to the delight of the audience, while the native ancient chant by Paahao, a Hawaiian, the accompaniment to which was by three native girls in costume, was novel in the extreme to most of those present.

Fifteen small children then followed with a Samoan song, and so cleverly was the work done and so well was their make-up that many debated the point whether or not they were veritable Samoans. They were by three native girls in costume, was novel in the extreme to most of those present.

A typical Mormon religious service in Samoa came next and was given by returned missionaries, a Samoan hut having been built on the platform for the purpose.

"The Arrival of the Mail at Nuamotu, Society Islands," was interpreted by returned missionaries and proved to be very interesting, and the series of tableaux showing events in the life of missionaries in Maoriland filled out the afternoon program, and ended a very pleasing entertainment.

Some of the tableaux and the Hawaiian and Samoan children in native costume were elaborately pictured by the Tribune, half a page of the paper being devoted to the celebration.

The dancing floor was well filled soon after, and was kept in a rather congested condition until 8 o'clock, when the visitors were called to see illustrations of the beauties of the foliage of the tropics and take a glimpse of the life, habits, customs and general peculiarities of the natives of the Pacific Isles, which were thrown on a screen by a stereopticon. The triangle on the lower floor to the east was crowded, as was also the dancing floor, and had the third floor been thrown open to the public, as it should have been, twice as many would have been able to see the splendid views, which were handled by Del Breezley, assisted by Bert Asper.

Among the pictures shown was one of President Cannon, which was taken in Hawaii in 1853, rescued from a shipwreck and afterwards copied and preserved. Another of interest was that showing the rescue of Elder James S. Brown, who had been condemned to be burned, but who was saved by Tahitian women.

While the sixty-five scenes shown were largely in connection with the propagation and growth of Mormonism in the islands, there were many showing also the general progress of the natives since the advent of Capt. Cook.

The affair was in the hands of John T. Caine, Ben Goddard, Matthew Meali, William O. Lee, James S. Brown,

E. J. Wood, Herbert S. Cutler and Frank Cutler as a general committee, with Mr. Caine as master of ceremonies, while efficient sub-committees looked after the other details.

It was said by an authority that there are now, in what is called the Mormon church as follows: Samoa and Tonga, 1,500; Hawaii, 5,000; Society Islands, 1,200; Australia and Tasmania, 1,000; New Zealand, 4,000.

There were about twenty Hawaiians at the resort during the day.

Yesterday's Arrests.

John Poepoe was arrested yesterday and is held at the station pending investigation.

Henry Taylor, a deserting sailor from the Kilmory, has been arrested and is held at the police station.

A Rana, a licensed driver, was arrested yesterday for violating rule 5 of the motor law.

Kumamu, Shimada Kaminaka and Lee Sing, were arrested and charged with being common nuisances.

Chas. Newlang and Antone Rodriguez were locked up for being drunk.

District Magistrate Appointed.

The following district magistrates were appointed by Governor Dole yesterday: Hawaii—P. H. Atkins, North Kohala; G. W. A. Hapai, South Hilo; J. H. Walpuli, Kauai; Maui—Charles Epp, Makawao; J. E. Joseph, Hana; D. Kahalo, Lahaina; J. K. Pimann, Oahu—E. P. Akue; Samuel Hookano, Ewa; S. Kekahuna, Waianae; W. L. Wilcox, Honolulu. Kauai—J. K. Kapuni, Waimea; H. K. Kahale, Lihue. Lanai—S. Kahohalahala.

Christopher Collins' Libel Against the Bark Empire.

A Motion That the Bondsmen Pay the Sailors Is Strenuously Opposed by Bark's Counsel.

In the United States District Court yesterday the following were naturalized: Joseph Andre, Portugal; G. H. Schiller and H. Zerbe, Germany; George A. Lucas, Austria; W. J. Weir, Ireland.

Attorney Benjamin L. Marx was admitted to practice in the court.

In the libel of Christopher Collins and others against the bark Empire, Attorney George A. Davis of the firm of Davis & Gear asked that the court make an order that the bondsmen of the bark, J. A. Gilman and Charles H. Atherton, pay the amount due the sailors.

Mr. McClanahan of counsel for the bark objected strenuously to such an order being made. They had given notice of an appeal to the United States Circuit Court. If the bondsmen paid the amount the case on going to the Circuit Court would be thrown out of court as being only one of straw.

The court asked the case under advisement, promising to render an opinion at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

CIVIL RIGHTS RESTORED TO FOUR OLD OFFENDERS.

GOVERNOR DOLE ISSUED PAR- DONS RESTORING CERTAIN PERSONS TO CITIZENSHIP.

Paul Jarrett, of Hawaii; J. W. Iona Apua, John Kaaua Given All Their Former Civil Rights.

Paul Jarrett of Hawaii, convicted of stealing horses and imprisoned for the crime; J. W. Iona, imprisoned after conviction for embezzlement; Apua, convicted of larceny in the second degree and imprisoned, and John Kaaua, convicted and imprisoned for the crime of treason, have been pardoned by the governor and restored to the enjoyment of all their civil rights.

The pardons of the first three read as follows, with the exception of the recital of the crime and term of imprisonment:

Restoration of Civil Rights.

"I, Sanford B. Dole, governor of the Territory of Hawaii, moved by just causes made known to me, do hereby, in accordance with the power in me vested, grant unto J. W. Iona, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District, Hawaiian Islands, on the sixth day of July, A. D. 1883, of the crime of embezzlement (no further record) restoration to his civil rights and declare him to be eligible to offices of trust, honor and profit. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed at the capitol in Honolulu, this twenty-fourth day of August, A. D. 1900.

"SANFORD B. DOLE.

"By the Governor.

"HENRY E. COOPER,

"Secretary of the Territory."

The pardon of John Kaaua reads like the others except that the man who was found guilty of the crime of treason by a military commission duly convened and sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for the term of five years from the twenty-fifth day of February, A. D. 1885, which sentence was approved by the commander-in-chief, and who was discharged under suspension of sentence on the fourth day of March, 1885, is given a full and free pardon and restoration to his civil rights."

A Question of Stamps.

Yesterday morning Judge Humphreys decided that Cecil Brown, representing the Hayseidens in the sale of their property on Lanai, should pay for stamps in transit the property to Mr. Kunst, the German capitalist. After the debts are paid the Hayseidens will realize about $50,000.

WISE DISCUSSES THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Says That He Is Not a Candidate for Congress.

WHAT HE THINKS ABOUT PARKER.

JUDGE GILBERT F. LITTLE IS WARMLY RECOMMENDED FOR DELEGATE.

A Friend Recalls the Debt of Gratitude Which Hawaii Owes to the Jurist—What He Has Done.

John H. Wise of 16 to 1 fame, in speaking of the political situation to a Republican reporter yesterday, said: "I understand that there are a number of candidates for the republican nomination of delegate to Congress. Sam Parker, W. O. Smith and H. P. Baldwin are out for the place. Of the three candidates I think Parker is the strongest, but, in my judgment, he will be an easy man to beat."

Mr. Wise is coquetting for the democratic nomination. Although I understand that Mr. Carter says he doesn't want the place, I believe if it were offered him he would accept."

"What about yourself?" asked the reporter.

Mr. Wise smiled significantly and softly said that he wasn't a candidate. "How about Prince David?"

"He is not after the place. If Mr. Carter should receive and accept the nomination he would be a difficult man to beat; in fact, I don't believe that he could be defeated."

Another gentleman who has been a resident of Honolulu for twenty-two years said: "While I like Sam Parker first rate, I don't believe that he is the right kind of a man to send to Washington. A man may be a good fellow and still not know anything about statecraft. We should send a live, aggressive man to the national capital. Judge Gilbert F. Little is the best qualified man that I know of for the place."

"The people of Hawaii, irrespective of party, owe Judge Little a debt of gratitude. If it had not been for Judge Little we would not be enjoying the many privileges that we have today under the Organic Act. Single-handed, Judge Little fought for an unrestricted franchise for this Territory. Against Smith, Hartwell, Armstrong and others at Washington he waged warfare and won.
